Chapter 1 by Astrid

I stared down at my phone, reading the text again. "No...I'm hanging out with someone else that day." I didn't understand how something so simple could cause so much damage. Me and my best friend, Emma, had been friends forever. We loved the fact that our birthdays were on the same day, and had always celebrated together. Apparently, not this year. I was on my own. "Okay." I texted back. "Have fun."
